Navy Chaplain Aloysius

Schmitt—The remains of Fr. Al Schmitt, a priest of the Archdiocese of Dubuque and native of St. Lucas, Iowa, have been identified by the Department of Defense. Lt. Jr. Grade

Schmitt perished on the U.S.S. Oklahoma on Pearl Harbor Day, December 7, 1941, after having helped to save twelve other sailors aboard the doomed ship. An American hero, Fr. Schmitt was the first chaplain killed during World War Two. He received the Navy and Marine Corps Medal and the Purple Heart for his bravery. In 1943, the United States Navy named a destroyer escort in his honor, the U.S.S. Schmitt.

Fr. Schmitt's remains were transported from Hawaii to St. Lucas, his home parish, for a Memorial Mass on October 5th. His remains were then taken to Christ the King Chapel, Loras College, Dubuque, for a vigil on October 7th. Fr. Mark Murphy, a native son of our parish and navy veteran, presided during the Vigil service. On October 8th, a Memorial Mass was celebrated at Christ the King Chapel, Loras College. Military rites took place immediately afterwards and Fr. Schmitt was interred inside of Christ the King Chapel, which was dedicated to his honor and blessed on October 26, 1947, by His Eminence Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Cardinal Archbishop of Chicago, in the presence of Fleet Admiral Arthur Nimitz.

This week, we welcomed home a priest of Jesus Christ, a native son and true hero. May Fr. Schmitt rest in peace and his heroism and faith inspire vocations to the priesthood and all of us to lives of faith and service.

Respect Life Month—

Timothy Cardinal Dolan, the Chair of the United States Bishops' Committee on Pro-Life Activities wrote the following letter to Catholics of our country upon the observance of Respect Life Sunday on October 2nd and Respect Life Month:

"This summer, I traveled to Poland for World Youth Day, where millions of young Catholics gathered. A theme chosen by Pope Francis that I addressed in a talk . . . was, "Now is the time for mercy." It's timely . . . Yet, as in a story I shared about Pope Saint John Paul II, it's also timeless.

For years, Poland had been oppressed, with no freedom of religion. Human rights had been trampled, and the sacredness of human life violated. Then Pope John Paul II visited in 1979 with a message that changed the world.

He spoke about God, faith, human dignity, truth, the sacredness of human life, and about Jesus and the Church. And what do you think happened? Over a million people responded, chanting over and over, "We want God! We want God!" Mikhail Gorbachev said it was Pope John Paul II's nine-day visit that led to the fall of communism.

After my talk concluded, history repeated itself. Youth from all over the world chanted, "We want God! We want God!" The Lord was moving hearts with his mercy.

God offers his gift of mercy to each and every one of us, no matter what. But we have to decide to receive that gift—whether or not to turn away from sin and turn, instead, toward him. We have to decide whether we want God.

*The theme of the 2016-17 Respect Life Program is "Moved by Mercy" (usccb.org/respectlife). When we let our hearts be moved by God's mercy, it shapes everything. As Pope Francis said, "We are called to show mercy because mercy has first been shown to us" (Misericordiae Vultus. . . ).*

God made each of us in his own image and likeness. He desires to be united with us forever in a loving relationship. God loves us, treats us with respect, and asks us to do the same with others. Every person is sacred and must be treated with the dignity they deserve. No one should ever be treated callously or carelessly—everyone should be cherished and protected!

*From each tiny child waiting to be born, to individuals nearing death, all are precious and deserve our care and protection. Women and men suffering after abortion, individuals tempted to end their lives, couples longing to conceive a child, people pushed to the margins of society by a 'throwaway culture,' expectant mothers facing challenging pregnancies, and every other person—each has a place in God's heart from all eternity' (Amoris Laetitia. . . , 168).*

Let's ask God to make us channels of his loving mercy: Lord, help us to receive your mercy and turn to you each moment. And please guide us in extending your mercy to others today. Now is the time for mercy."
