Thanksgiving 2016—

We'll hear a lot this week about the importance of giving thanks for the gifts and blessings from God in our lives and that being thankful is a year round spiritual exercise not restricted to a single day.

All well and good, but why is being thankful so important that it becomes a habituated prayer in our lives? We start with the Mass, the highest form for Catholics. During its celebration, we give thanks to God for the gift of salvation—that we are forgiven people bought back from sin by the sacrifice of Christ on the cross. Without Jesus we are lost and nothing. With him, we are renewed, redeemed and called to live eternally with God in heaven.

This is profoundly true, but can sound like it comes from the pages of a theology textbook. Let's apply that to our lives. St. Paul says to "Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you" (1 Thes 5: 18). In whatever circumstance, whether you are mad, sad, happy, afraid, heavily burdened or at the top of your game, never cease giving thanks because it opens you to God and his marvelous work, mercy and love in your life. There is always a reason to give thanks. Easier said than done, I know, especially if you are preoccupied by the existential moment of your life, but being thankful is the antidote to being self-absorbed and lost in activities and events of life. "Continue steadfastly in prayer," St. Paul says in another passage, "watchful in it in thanksgiving" (Col 4:2). It makes sense because we can become so preoccupied with our issues and the real challenges of our day. But, prayer is your respite, a foolproof way that your heart is opened and lifted to God. That's how sanity and perspective comes in a world that can be chaotic. It calms fear and offers hope that you are in the hands of One who is bigger than the worst of what the world throws at you or that in which you become embroiled. Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His mercy endures forever!

Thanksgiving Day Mass—will be celebrated on Thursday, November 24, 2016, at 9 AM. Please plan to attend to give thanks for the many blessings God has bestowed upon you and your family.

Stay Connected and Be Inspired through Flocknote!

Did you know that St. Joseph uses an email and texting service called Flocknote? It is a means by which the parish can send "notes" to the "flock." There are multiple opportunities to stay connected and be inspired through St. Joseph Flocknote messages. For example, you could sign-up for our inspirational messages called SHINE. These include simple video, text, or image content to inspire you in your faith. SHINE messages are sent daily during Advent and Lent and weekly the rest of the year. Text-to-join by texting the word SHINE to 84576. Or, you could join one of our many other lists, including Marriage Enrichment emails sent every other week to inspire couples and inform about upcoming parish marriage enrichment opportunities (text MARRIAGE to 84576 to join); a Young Adult Ministry monthly newsletter with upcoming opportunities for 21-39 year olds (text YAMGRAM to 84576 to join); Women's Ministry emails help women of all ages stay connected with parish opportunities for women (text WOMEN to 84576 to join). Join any of our parish Flocknote lists at www.flocknote.com/stjoesmarion.

Guess Who's Coming to Dinner!

The Parish Community Life Committee is resurrecting this event which has been popular in the past!

Mark your calendars for Sunday, January 29, 2017. Details will come later, in the bulletin. Right now, we are in need of couples or singles to host a dinner group of other adult parishioners. You decide how many people you are comfortable hosting, and then prepare the entrée and provide drink. Your guests will provide salad and vegetable. After the meal, everyone meets up at the Church Hall for dessert. The fun part is that no one will know who is in their dinner party until they all show up at your house! Guests are only provided the address and what kind of food item to bring. This is a fun way to meet some of your fellow parishioners other than just seeing them on your way in or out of church! So, if hosting might be for you, now is the time to call or email Sharron Konzen at 319-350-9861 or rkonzan@yahoo.com.
