Student Tuition Organization--Still not sure about this "STO" thing? It's simple. If you file an Iowa income tax return, your contributions to the Our Faith STO receive a 65% tax credit. That means for every $1000 you donate, you receive an Iowa income tax credit of $650. Thus, a $1000 contribution reduces your Iowa tax liability by a whopping $650 AND the entire amount of your gift qualifies for federal deductibility. And that gift you made? It helps makes a Catholic education affordable for every child. Thus, a $1000 contribution reduces your Iowa tax liability by a whopping $650 AND the entire amount of your gift qualifies for federal deductibility. The available Iowa tax credits are filling up fast so visit www.OurFaithSto.org or call the Archdiocese of Dubuque at 800-876-3546 ext. 219 or 307 to learn more.

Advent Decorations—You may have noticed the two banners at the main entryway of the church. If you haven't, go take a look at them. One banner depicts half of a wreath with holy and ivy, and the other a half a crown of thorns. The design, which evokes great reflection upon the mystery of Christ's presence in the world and our lives, is also found in the sanctuary of the church.

Consider firstly the wreath itself which is reminiscent of the Advent wreath. The circular design of the wreath reminds us of the eternity of God, that he has no beginning or end, but is the eternal now. The circle, God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, is complete and perfect in itself and needs or requires nothing in its perfection. Yet, as St. Paul said in the Letter to the Philippians, Christ emptied himself and became fully human to dwell amongst us even as he was fully God in order to save us from our sins. The infinite, almighty, perfect and timeless God entered time in order that we might be saved. That's what the holly and ivy, Christmas, the Incarnation of Christ, represents to us.

Even though it may seem to be a bit premature, although it really isn't, the thorns on the wreath take us to the Passion and cross of our Lord. That self-emptying of Jesus at Christmas continues through the cross as he poured himself out for us so that all might be saved by him. God so loved the world, the gospel of St. John reminds us, that he sent his only Son into the world not to condemn it, but to save it. The mystery of Christmas is never disconnected from the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection, the Paschal Mystery. It is a part of the whole, that is, the plan God has for our salvation. Our baptism makes us a part of that infinite circle of the wreath. In Christ, we enter into and dwell with the timeless, eternal God who even now calls us unto eternity with him when death comes.

Advent will be a very short season this year as the fourth Sunday is Christmas Eve. Take the time to reflect upon and participate in the spirituality of the season. It is too rich, beautiful and renewing to let it slip by.

Retirement Fund for Religious Collection - is this weekend. "Your generous contribution helps us to care for our retired sisters and enables our younger sisters to continue in active ministry," writes a religious sister. Your gift to today's collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious helps provide medications, nursing care, and more for thousands of senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests. It also helps ensure younger members can continue the good works of their elders.

Blessing of Parents before Childbirth - Our Lady of Guadalupe, whose feast we celebrate on December 12th, is the patroness of life. She appeared to St. Juan Diego pregnant with Jesus. It is appropriate on or about her feast to invite parents expecting children to be blessed before the birth of their children. This we shall do the weekend of December 16-17 at the Shrine of the Holy Family (near the Brockman Street exit of the church and the reconciliation room) after all of the Masses. Parents and their families are especially invited to participate.
