Inclement Winter Weather

Occasionally, snow and ice storms or serious fog occur which will impact parish functions. Since your priests live close to the church, they will be able to reach it to celebrate Mass. Most of you drive to church and some walk, both of which calls for a prudential judgment regarding weekend or weekday Mass attendance during or after storms or if thick and dangerous fog occur. When such inclement weather happens, consider first your safety and that of others. Would it be unsafe and dangerous for you to come to church because of weather, road or sidewalk conditions? Is the wind chill posing a danger if you were stranded in a car or walked? If so, a good decision would be to stay home until conditions improve and it is safe to travel. Another consideration is our parking lot and sidewalks. We will make every effort to clear the snow and ice on our property to make it safe for you, but we can't do anything about the fog. Sometimes we can't catch up to or have an immediate effect on the weather conditions because they have occurred immediately before the scheduled Mass times or are occurring during Masses. Your priests will be at church to celebrate Mass for whoever is able to come. However, when inclement, dangerous weather occurs, please make a prayerfully prudent decision regarding your attendance that day or weekend.

Christmas Thanks - Fr. Mark, the deacons, staff and I wish to offer you our gratitude and thanks for your cards, greetings, gifts and goodies this Christmas. We appreciate your prayers, thoughtfulness and care. May God bless you for your goodness and throughout the New Year.

Holy Family Sunday - celebrates the family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Because Jesus took on our humanity, being fully God and fully human, it is logical to assume that he would belong to a nuclear family and an extended one as well, in his case called the House of (King) David because of St. Joseph. The Original Sin of Adam and Eve was so thorough that it fractured the marital relationship between husband and wife, parents with their children and siblings with one another. When Jesus came into the world as Savior, his mission was to heal all that was ruptured and broken by sin including family life.

Today's feast is not one that highlights the woes of contemporary family life, but gathers families together in the Christian life of virtue, healing, worship, forgiveness and thanksgiving. The scriptures give us a window into that for which to strive in family life. The Holy Family can easily be made statuesque models that provide too high of a bar for anyone to hope to imitate. But, think again. Jesus, Mary and Joseph were a part of the joys, hopes, sorrows and suffering of their own time. They were woven into the real life, real time fabric of their day. The Romans kept the peace in Palestine, but also were a menace. The Roman way came at a price for the Chosen People. Read the scriptures today with that lens as you ponder the example of the Holy Family to be imitated in your own families. Jesus, Mary and Joseph practiced what the scriptures proclaim. The Holy Family didn't live in an antiseptic bubble, but lived in real life as we do. Hence, they aren't far removed from us, but are examples to encourage, guide and inspire families as heavenly intercessors to assist families on their pilgrim way to eternity.

January 1, 2018, the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God - In various dioceses in the United States including our own, when January 1st and various other holy days occur on a Saturday or Monday, the obligation to attend Mass is lifted. The Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God, remains a solemnity celebrating that Our Lady is the Mother of Jesus. It also marks the conclusion of the octave, that is, the eight day celebration of Christmas. Even though the solemnity is not a Holy Day of Obligation, Mass will be at 9:00 AM that day.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will not occur on January 1st.
