The Pastor's Pen

Fr. Mark Qwenin—I visited with Fr. Qwenin, pronounced “Queen-in,” at the Priests’ Convocation this week. I first met him at the ordinations to the priesthood at the end of May, shortly after his arrival in the United States. We have met and talked a few times since then, most recently at the Convocation. Parishioner Ted Lockhart has been working with him and the Archdiocese in preparation for Father Mark’s arrival in Marion. Currently, I anticipate that Father will begin his assignment as our full-time associate pastor on July 6th.

While I assume that Father will speak about himself as time goes by, there are a few things I would like to share anticipating his arrival. Father is a priest of the Archdiocese of Cape Coast, Ghana, and has most recently worked in their finance office. He has never been to the United States. Hence, I anticipate that Fr. Mark will be experiencing a rather intense year of enculturation. Everything we take for granted, such as grocery shopping, eating habits, holidays and various social expectations, mannerisms and manner of speech, will be new to him. The learning curve may be a bit steep, but with your help, his enculturation into our country, and at St. Joseph in particular, will be made much easier. Many of you have asked me about how well he speaks English. His mastery of the language is very good, but we will need to tune our ears in order to acclimate them his accent. Enculturation goes both ways.

Father Qwenin is a gift to St. Joseph Parish as our associate pastor. I am looking forward to his arrival and I ask that you give him a hearty St. Joseph welcome as he begins his ministry with us.

Parish Mission Appeal: The annual parish mission appeal conducted throughout the Archdiocese of Dubuque to support the priests, religious, and laity working in missions domestically and abroad, is this weekend. Fr. Kambale Sambya Zawadi Jean-Marie, osc, will be speaking at all the Masses the weekend of July 1-2. Information about the Crosier missions is found below. Next week, a bulletin insert and a contribution envelope will be made available to you. Please be generous to this appeal.

The Crosier Fathers and Brothers have been serving the people throughout Indonesia for nearly 90 years. In 1958, the Crosiers began serving the Asmat people in the region of Papua, Indonesia. Helping the Asmat people with social-economic, education and health challenges is a pastoral priority. Currently, 10 Crosiers from Indonesia serve four parishes in the Diocese of Agats-Papua, ministering in many ways. Through their strong commitment to education, the Crosiers began Bina Cahya, a Catholic vocational-technical school in Bandung to serve children from low-income families, preparing them to enter the workforce. This school connects the Catholic Church and the whole of society in Indonesia. The Crosiers strive to help empower the people of Papua by teaching them self-sustainability. Funding is vital to send local people to study to become catechists, teachers and nurses. Critical funds are also needed to support the Crosier mission in Indonesia and its numerous ministries. Fr. Zawadi, osc, will be visiting our parish the weekend of July 1 - 2, to speak to us about the Crosiers’ missions in Papua, Indonesia. Please welcome him!

Thank You

A sincere thank you to our St. Joseph parish family for the outpouring of kind words, thoughts and prayers at the loss of my mom, Dee Wolf. Just by being part of our lives, you are all helping us adjust to life without her. Knowing so many of you are thinking of our family has blessed us in so many ways. May God bestow abundant blessings on the wonderful people of St. Joseph.

Rosaries in Support of Christians in the Holy Land

Rosaries brought back to St. Joseph from the Holy Land pilgrimage are available for purchase outside the main church entrance on this weekend. Simple in design and yet profound in symbolic significance, these rosaries were handcrafted from the wood of olive trees by Christian families living in Bethlehem. Your purchase of a rosary helps support these families who, despite hardships and obstacles, strive to witness to Christ’s message of love. The olive wood rosaries are available in the parish office and are $15 each.

Parish Prayer Ministry Opportunity: The Seven Sisters Apostolate

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed in front of the Blessed Sacrament each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop. Each member commits to a Holy Hour on a distinct day of the week, thus covering a complete week. The commitment is to that day; the Seven Sister may pray at any time on that day. For the past year, a Seven Sister have been praying one hour, one day each week for Fr. O’Connor’s intention. We are ready to expand the Seven Sisters Apostolate to include more women of St Joseph. Please contact Rosemary Bauer at bauerr1983@my.uwstout.edu for more information about joining this ministry.
